

K-STATE | COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

ENGINEERING DAY FRIDAY, MARCH 31, 2017

Engineering Day is for juniors, sophomores and freshmen who want to explore the field of engineering.

-
- 8:30 a.m. Registration, K-State Engineering Complex (enter through southeast plaza entrance)
- 9:30 a.m. Welcome/Engineering Career Session, College of Engineering Auditoriums
- Morning Session
- Learn about preparing for an engineering degree in college
 - Learn how to be successful with admissions and scholarships
 - Participate in interactive presentations relating to HS math and /or science classes
- 11:30 a.m. Lunch with K-State students and faculty, Union Ballroom, 2nd floor
- 1:00 p.m. Afternoon Session
- Get a unique look at degree programs with students and faculty on a facility tour
 - Learn more about engineering design teams and student organizations
 - Enjoy an informal closing reception (optional), Engineering Hall Atrium
-

See your high school counselor, gifted facilitator, or math/science teacher for details. You can also email kstateengg@k-state.edu or call 785-532-5455 for more information.

Pre-register (required) at engineeringday.engg.k-state.edu by Monday, March 20, 2017.

Connect with us! @KStateEngg

Kansas State University Engineering Open House 2017

BALSA BRIDGE COMPETITION

Saturday, April 1, 2017 at 9:00 AM

Engineering Complex

Fiedler Auditorium (1107)

Registration Deadline: Friday, March 31, 2017

Visit www.engg.ksu.edu/asce/ and click on the Balsa Bridge tab for more information or email James Scott at jamesds@ksu.edu.